Special Agreement.

In an endeavor to "wipe the slate clean" of private claims pending between the governments of the United States and Great Britain, a special tribunal for their arbitration tomorrow morning will begin their sessions here.

The claims to be arbitrated are chiefly Canadian. They relate to seizures of American fishing vessels and Canadian sealers, collisions, contracts in the Yu-kon territory, South Africa, and India, and other subjects. Many have been pending for more than fifty years. The arbitration will take place under a special agreement between the two governments, which was ratified August 18, 1910. All the claims to be arbitrated have been listed in schedules, which have ratified by the two government The joint tribunal consists of the foldent; Sir Charles Fitspatrick, chief jus-tice of Canada, for Great Britain, and Chandler P. Anderson, formerly Counselor of the State Department, for the United States. Lecture on Sex Hygiene. "Sex Hygiene" will be the subject of a lecture to be delivered next Wednesday night by Dr. J. Rozier Biggs, of the Children's Hospital, at a mass meeting to be held in Odd Fellows' Hall under the auspices of Potomac Council of the National Union. The many benefits to be derived from such dramas as "Damage Goods" will be pointed out by Dr. Biggs.
